

10 video apps

Stay Connected—and learn—with family and friends

Sheltering in place doesn't mean you have to be disconnected from family and friends. In times of stress, personal connections and relationships are more important to children than ever. Remember to monitor your children when they are collaborating online and use secure passwords to ensure only invited guests participate.

Resource	Description
Google Meet	Video conferencing
Skype	Video conferencing
Webex	Video conferencing
Zoom	Video conferencing
Bunch	Family-friendly party game for your phone
Caribu	Family video app that integrates reading children's picture books
Flipgrid	Record and share short videos
Marco Polo	Video walkie-talkie app
Teleparty	Watch movies together using your Netflix, Disney, Hulu, or HBO subscription
Voxer	Text, audio, and photo walkie-talkie

Creative Communication Ideas

- » Play Yahtzee
- » Tell family stories
- » Start a family book club
- » Play charades
- » Have a “mentor moment”
- » Showcase your child’s work
- » Create a cooking show
- » Host a virtual sing-along
- » Play “Heads Up”
- » Perform a music recital or jam session
- » Enjoy a virtual family meal

Virtual Learning Resources

Copyright © Intel Corporation. All Rights Reserved. Other names and brands may be claimed as the property of others.