

READING AND WRITING ACTIVITIES FOR ELEMENTARY KIDS

Now is the perfect opportunity for your elementary school child to build upon their reading and writing skills. Below are some resources and activities that can support the development of these foundational skills for learning and life.

Name & Link	Description
Book Authors Read	Children's authors read their stories and share activities.
Story Time Online	Actors read a wide variety of books for children.
Write a Haiku Poem	A how-to on writing Haikus.
Read a Library Book on Libby	This free app connects families to free local library digital resources.
Send a Letter to Family or Friends	It's a great time drop a note in the mailbox to let your child show they care.
Start a Journal	Keeping a journal helps children both with writing and emotional support.
Document your Family's History	Children can make family trees or interview family members to create family history books.
Play Mad Libs	These guarantee lots of laughter as kids learn parts of speech.
Read to your grandparent	Need to entertain both your child and your parent? Have one read to the other over video chat!
Story Starter to get you going	Here are 49 story starters to support creative writing.

Remote Learning Resources

Copyright © Intel Corporation. All Rights Reserved. Other names and brands may be claimed as the property of others.